Lisa Hansen – main areas of expertise

Lisa is a barrister specialising in civil and commercial dispute resolution (litigation, arbitration and mediation) having particular interest and expertise in public and administrative law, contract and negligence claims, ACC, employment, medico-legal issues, resource management/public works issues, fire arms permits and relationship property.

Lisa has a solution focussed approach and aims to achieve positive outcomes for her clients efficiently and cost effectively for her clients. Lisa values active engagement and communication with clients throughout all stages of the process.

Client communication is a fundamental aspect of client care and finding suitable solutions for their individual matters.

Lisa has appeared at all levels of the New Zealand Courts including the Privy Council, Supreme Court, Court of Appeal, High Court, District and Family Court. Lisa also undertakes independent investigations both in employment and government matters.

Lisa became a barrister on 1 February 2010. Prior to the bar she was Crown Counsel at Crown law for 13 years after working at the Department of Conservation's West Coast Conservancy and Caudwells Dunedin.
